

Short Biography

David W. Brewer is a young American conductor and composer native to Kansas City, Missouri. He serves as the Director of Music at Regents Academy of Nacogdoches, Texas. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Music from Northwest Missouri State University and a Masters degree in Choral Conducting from Oklahoma State University where he studied with Dr. Z. Randall Stroope. David has had composition premiers at several conferences and university events both nationally and internationally. More information may be found on his website (www.dwbrewermusic.com).