

Short Biography

David W. Brewer is a young American conductor and composer native to Kansas City, Missouri. He serves as the Choir Director at Nacogdoches High School in Nacogdoches, Texas. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Music from Northwest Missouri State University and a Master's degree in Choral Conducting from Oklahoma State University where he studied with Dr. Z. Randall Stroepe. David has had composition premiers at several conferences and university events both nationally and internationally. More information may be found on his website (www.dwbrewermusic.com).